

LIFE AT CAMPUS
BY TAREMWA JOAB

May 21, 2017

1 Introduction

Life at campus is all about how students live, their conduct and the ways of living forexample how they spend their free time like playing games, playing music, etc. and there are other ways like attending lectures and readind books, going to church. live

2 Problem Statement

The project will tackle is in the ways of living for campusers, their behaviors.

3 Objective

those who are living the ways in which the niversity cant allow should change like taking alot of alcohol, smoking should change because they have side effects like causing cancer.

3.1 Aim or general objective

To understand the ways and how campusers conduct themselves

4 Research Scope

The target of this project is to campusers and all the people who live around the campuses who normally see their behaviors and their ways of living including lecturers who teach them.

5 Methodology

5.1 Research Methods

This information was collected by interviewing some students from makerere university. Some students made some remarks that it is enjoyable at the same time alot of hustling.

6

References

- [1] <https://lifeatcampus-168309.appspot.com>